Ye will return again; the early beams Of spring will wake ye from your wintry sleep, By the still fountains and the shining streams That through the green and leafy woodlands sweep Ye will return again to cheer the bosoms Of the deep valleys, by old woods o'erhung, With the fresh fragrance of your poning blossoms To be the joy and the treasure of the young; With birds, from the far lands and sunny hours. Ye will return, sweet flowers!

"But when will they return, our flowers that fell From life's blanch'd gariand when its bloom was And left but the dim memories that dwell fnew, In silent hearts and homes? The summer's dew And summer's sun, with all their balm and bright May fall on deserts or on graves in vain; But to the locks grown dim with early whiteness, What spring can give the sable look again, Or to the early wither d heart restore Its perish'd bloom once more?

"In vain, in vain! Years come and years depart; Time hath its changes, and the world its tears; And we grow old in frame, and grev in heart, Seeking the grave through many hopes and fears But still the ancient earth renews around us Her faded flowers, though life renews no more The bright but early broken ties that bound us, The garlands that our blighted summers wore: Buds to the trees and biossoms to the bowers Return-but not life's flowers!"

Thus sang the bard, when autumn's latest gold Hung on the woods, and summer's latest bloom Was fading fast, as winter sern and cold Came from the northern home of clouds and gloom. But from the dying flowers a voice seem'd breathing Of higher hopes; it whispered sweet and low, When spring again her sunny smile is wreathing We will return to thee; but thou must go To seek life's blighted blossoms on that shore Where flowers can fade no more!"

A Sketch of Rufus Choate.

We do not know who wrote the following, (it could not have been Bungay,) which we find in a Western paper, but he ought to have something done for him:

"Rufus Choate is a picture to look at, and a crowder to spout He is about seven feet six or six feet seven in his socks; supple as an eel, and wiry as a corkscrew. His face is a compound of wrinkles, 'yallow janders' and jurisprudeuce. He has small, keen, piercing black eyes, and a head shaped like a mammoth goose egg. big end up; and his hair black and curly, much resembling a bag of wool in 'admirable disorder,' or a brush heap in a gale of winds His body has no particular shape, and his wit and legal 'dodges' have set many a judge in a snicker, and so confounded jurors as to make it almost impossible for them to speak plain English or tell the truth for the rest of their natural lives. Rufus is great on twisting himself up; squirming himself around and prancing, jumping, and kicking up the dust when the steam's up. His oratory is first rate, and his arguments ingenious and forcible He generally makes a 'ten strike'-judge and jury down at the end of every sentence. He is great on flowery expressions and highfalutin 'flubbubs.' Strangers mostly think he is crazy, and the rest scarcely understand what he is about. He invoices his time and elocution four thousand per cent. over ordinary charges for having one's self put through a course of law. Rufus Choate is about fifty years of age-perhaps over. He is considered the ablest lawyer in New England, or perhaps in the United States. His handwriting can't be deciphered without the aid of a pair of compases and a quadrant. His autograph somewhat resembles the map of Ohie, and looks like a piece of crayon sketching, done in the dark with a threepronged fork. He has been in the Senate, and may be, if he has time to fish for it, President of the United States."

A FAT HEN .- Mr. E. Goff, of this city, recently found that one of his hens, from which he procured an egg a day, could not walk about with facility, and on the 6th instant ahe came to a stand and rolled. She could no longer run about. So Mr. Goff cut off her head, and, on stripping the feathers, he found almost a solid mass of fat. Her claws were even puffed out with fat. She was small in size, but so solid in grease that she weighed when dressed seven and a half pounds.—Hartford Times.

An English paper says a large number of persons in South Wales have left, and others are still preparing to follow, for the Mormon settlements in North America.

INVIGORATING CORDIAL A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE. LIEALTH RESTORED AND LIFE LENGTHENED, by DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING

BLIXIR OR CORDIAL.—At first the properties attributed to Prof. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR OR OORDIAL were deemed fabulous. The public often deceived, could not believe the simple and sublime truths announced by the discoverer.—
But facts, undeniable facts attested by witnesses of the highest class and character, are now triumphing over all doubts. INCREDULITY IS OVER-THROWN by a mass of testimony which is perfectly rresistable. The ELIXIB remedies, in all cases, the deplorable evils arising from a misuse or abuse of the various organs which make up the word ful machine called man. It restores to full vigor every delicate func tien connected with that mysterious compound agency of matter and mind, necessary to the re-pro duction of human life. To persons of feeble muscular frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recom mended as the only means of communicating that energy which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not con fined to either sex or to any age. The feeble girl, the ailing wife, the listless, ernevated youth, the overworn man or business, the victim of nervous de pression, the individual suffering from general de-bility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the use of this incomparable renovator. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis it will prove a complete and unfailing safeguard against that terri ble malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with disease as it exists, without reference to causes, and will not only remove the disorder itself, but

REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION. The derangements of the system, leading to neryous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease it self, are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladies for which this prepararation is a specific. A few, however, may be enumerated, viz: neuralgia, tic dolereaux, heatache, incipient paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, spina' affections, muscular debility, tremers, flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh, numbness, torpidity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, indisposition to move, faintness after exercise, broken sleep and terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place r position, weakness of the pro-creative organs, sexual incompancy, melanchely, monomania, fluor albus, nking at the stomach, female irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscar-riage, emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrenness that does not proceed from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine.

Whenever the organs to be acted upon are free from malformation or strictural diseases it is averred MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXER will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural ac tivity, and this not only without hazard of reaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization.

Bear in mind that all maiadies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralization of the nerves or motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind also, that for every kind of nervous disease the Elixer Cerdial is the only reliable preparation known. CAUTION.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has been counterfeited by some unprincipled persons. In future, all the genuine Cordial will have the proprietor's fac simile pasted over the cork of each bottle, and the following words blown in the glass Dr., Morae's Invigorating Cordial,

THE MOST EXTENSIVE BOOT, SHOE AND TRUNK ESTABLISHMENT IN WASHINTON CITY.

Just Opened in Iron Hall. S. P. HOOVER has fitted up in attractive style the large and spacious store in Iron Hall, Pa avenue, between 9th and 10th streets, and furnished it with perhaps the largest and best selecte! stock of Boots and Shoes ever exhibited in this city.

It is his determination to make this establishment excel in all particulars every other of the kind in the country. With this view he has made arrange. ments for a regu ar supply of every article in his line of business with the most celebrated manufacturers in this country, and in future every variety of Boots and Shoes for Ladies, Gentlemen, Children and Servants may here be found at the very lowest

I beg leave to refer to the following commendations of this extensive establishment from the Washington press:

HOOVER'S SHOE STORE.—Yesterday we made a visit to the place of business of Mr. S. P. Hoover, in that imposing structure, the Iron Building, on Pennsylvania avenue, between 9th and 10th streets. We have given this notice the modest caption of Shoe Store; but we an truly say that it is a most inviting, and even magnificent, establishment-one highbeautiful than the one it is our pleasure to notice. ary 9, 1854. The stock of Mr. Hoover is large, and ladies and gentlemen can procure shoes and boots of the most superior quality and at moderate prices. The enterprise of Mr. Hoover should be rewarded by a discriminating public .- Washington Union. IRON HALL BOOT AND SHOE SALCON .-- This establish ment, just opened by Mr. S. P. Hoover, is one of the most extensive in the United States, the saloon being one hundred and thirty feet, with twenty-five feet front. Entering, one observes a long line of el egantly made shelves and counters, filled with the fashions of the day in the line. In the rear is the ladies' department, which is carpeted with three ply carpeting, seats and cusbions covered with French moroe o, and, that the dear creatures may see themselves in all their beauty, as others see them, a magnificent mirror is suspended for their accommodation. The mirror, including the rich frame, is eight fest high and three feet and a half wide. Here is, therefore, an unequalled boot and shoe raloon. and the stock therein is at least equal to any in style and manufacture. We were surprised to find so many varieties. There were ladies' high beeled Gaiters, Congress and Button Gaiters, with and without heels; ladies' "Glicerious" slippers, enam-elled toilet, carpet, black and bronze French kid and norocco slippers, Jeffersons and ties, morocco boots of all colors, &c., to suit every taste of the fair purchasers. For gentlemen, there are ratent leather and calf skin boots, aid top and cloth Congress Gaiters, English patent leather and low quartered shoes. Suitable for boys we found youths' patent leather heeled pumps, button leather gaiters, Mun roes, Oxford and English ties, fine calf skin and cork soled boots. For girls, he has also a rich and general variety; and for infants and small children the beautiful little foot coverings are quite elegant. We were also shown an assortment of excellent shoes for servants. These, with boo -hooks, button hooks, and shoe horns, all kinds of trunk, carpet begs, umbrellas, and other articles "to numerous to mention," as Shakspeare says, constitute the material of this magnificent addition to the fine stores on Pennsylvania avenue. The stock is both of homeand foreign manufacture, of the best, and sold as cheap as such understandings can be bought in the Northern cities .- Evening Star.

NEW AND SPLENDID SHOE STORE .- Mr. S. P. Hoover having removed from his old stand to a new and elstore in Iron Hall, is now prepared to wait uron his customers in an establishment that is most admirably fitted up and well stocked with the most largest of the kind in this country, is 130 feet long the following-named townships and about 25 feet wide. The carpenter's work was executed by Messrs. Baldwin & Sen; the painter's by Messrs. Parker & Spaulding. It is very hand-some as well as a spacious establishment. sep 29-rolm Washington News.
